

John Livingston

Call 1980

John Livingston now practises only in the fields of crime and immigration, having practised for a number of years in general common law.

Practice Areas

Crime

John both prosecutes and defends.

Notable crime cases

Vlatko Kupreskic

Acted for the defendant Vlatko Kupreskic, in his appeal against conviction at the ICTY. The defendant was found not guilty in relation to his alleged involvement in the Ahmici massacre in Central Bosnia.

Dusko Tadic

Represented Dusko Tadic before the Appeals Chamber of the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia (ICTY).

Milan Milutinovic

Acted for Milan Milutinovic, former President of Serbia, at the ICTY.

Education

- BA Jurisprudence (Oxon)
- LLM (London)