

Olivia Rawlings

Call 2021

Olivia Rawlings prosecutes and defends in the Crown, Magistrates' and Youth Courts. She has a busy criminal practice and is regularly instructed in criminal matters on both a publicly and privately funded basis.

Olivia has experience dealing with a wide range of criminal offences including violence, drugs, weapons, robbery, theft and sexual offences. She is frequently instructed to represent clients charged with motoring offences including at special reasons and exceptional hardship applications.

Olivia has experience of dealing with quasi-criminal proceedings. She is instructed to appear on behalf of Transport for London in licencing appeals and has experience defending in contested applications for Criminal Behaviour Orders and Gang Injunctions.

Before coming to the Bar, Olivia worked for 18-months as a paralegal at Sonn Macmillan Walker dealing with mainly criminal matters but also regulatory and extradition. Before that she worked on capital defence cases in New Orleans, Louisiana.

Publications

---

- CPS Advocate Panel (General Crime) – Grade 2

Memberships

---

- Criminal Bar Association
- Women in Criminal Law
- Young Fraud Lawyers Association
- Honourable Society of Middle Temple

Education

---

- Bar Professional Training Course, City Law School

- Graduate Diploma in Law, City, University of London
- BA(Hons) English and Music, Keele University

Qualifications

---

- ICCA Advocacy & The Vulnerable (Crime)